21st February 2017

Dear Parents and carers,

On Thursday 2nd March 2017 our school will be taking part in World Book Day, and Shacklewell will be overrun by characters from all of your children's favourite books!

World Book day allows children to come to school dressed as their favourite book character, for a wonderfully fun and creative way to get Shacklewell talking about reading!

It's very easy to get involved – simply help your child choose a character and create a magical costume - your child can dress up as any character, from any book! Of course we like all sorts of costumes but children being able to explain who they are and why they have chosen it is as important for us.

On World Book Day there will also be opportunities for children to get involved in some book-tastic competitions – 'Guess the teacher's favourite book' and 'Extreme Reading' – where we ask your child to take a photo of themselves 'Extreme Reading' and send it into school on World Book Day. We also have a book swap on World Book Day after school. From Thursday 23rd February children will be able to drop in old books that they no longer need at the office. Then on Thursday 2nd March 2017 at 3.30pm children will be welcome to come into the hall to see if they can select a new book for free! Please see if you can find some pre-loved reading material at home so we can really make this event a success.

Finally, as a thank you for your child taking part, they will be given a £1 book token, which can be spent in book stores all over London. Specific books will be sold for £1 between the 27th February and the 27th March.

Many thanks, and we hope you can join in our World Book Dress Up Day.
